THE UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The United States Naval Academy is an institution of higher education conducted by the Navy Department for the purpose of preparing young men to enter the lowest commissioned ranks of the Navy and Marine Corps. It was founded as the Naval School in 1845 by the Honorable George Bancroft, historian, educator, and Secretary of the Navy, to improve the then unsatisfactory methods of instructing midshipmen. It was located at Annapolis, Md., on the site occupied by Fort Severn, which was given up for the purpose by the War Department. At first the course was 5 years, of which only the first and last were spent at the school, the intervening 3 years being spent on board ships on active service. It was reorganized in 1850–51 as the United States Naval Academy, with a course of study of 4 consecutive years. A summer practice cruise replaced the omitted sea service, and gave better opportunities for intensive training. During the Civil War the Academy was moved to Newport, R. I., but was brought back to Annapolis in 1865, where it has since remained. In the following years great improvements were effected in the organization and curriculum. From 1873 to 1912 the academic course was 6 years, the last 2 of which were spent at sea. In 1912 the course was fixed at 4 years, the 2 years at sea being omitted. During the Civil, Spanish-American, and World Wars, the course was shortened to provide more officers for the fleets. During the World Wars large classes of Reserve officers and Reserve midshipmen were trained at the Academy.

The students undergoing the course at the Naval Academy have been called in turn, acting midshipmen, midshipmen, cadet midshipmen and cadet engineers, naval cadets, and since the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, midshipmen. A midshipman is an officer in a qualified sense. He is appointed a midshipman in the Navy, not merely at the Naval Academy, is subject to the orders and regulations of the Navy Department, but does not now participate in the benefits of retirement or longevity. He may be ordered to sea duty although this is not customary except on practice cruises. He ranks after a commissioned warrant officer, and ahead of a warrant officer. Upon graduation he may be commissioned an ensign in the line of the Navy, or a staff corps, or as a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps. In addition, 221 members of the class of 1954 were commissioned as second lieutenants in the United States Air Force in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of Defense.

Under the Superintendent, the Academy is organized into the following departments: The executive department headed by the commandant of midshipmen who is charged with leadership instruction, interior discipline, drills, and tactical instruction; and the departments of seamanship and navigation, ordnance and gunnery, marine engineering, aviation, mathematics, electrical engineering, English, history, and government, foreign languages, hygiene and physical education. At present about 25 percent of the academic work is devoted to the social-humanistic subjects, about 50 percent to the scientific-engineering subjects, and about 25 percent to the military-professional subjects.

Beginning in the year 1899, following an appropriation of $10,000,000 by Congress for the purpose, the Naval Academy was almost completely rebuilt in the French Renaissance style after the designs of the architect, Mr. Ernest Flagg, of New York. The grounds of the Academy proper now comprise 256 acres (Government-owned) and 45 acres (leased) along the west bank of the Severn River, on which are 294 buildings with equipment totaling an original cost of $35,285,389.

An act of Congress approved on May 25, 1933, authorized the Superintendent to confer the degree of bachelor of science upon all graduates from and after the date of the accrediting of the Academy by the Association of American Universities. That association had placed the Naval Academy on its approved list on October 25, 1930, and graduates commencing with the class of 1931 became eligible for the degree. By virtue of an act of Congress approved July 8, 1937, the Superintendent is now authorized to confer the degree upon all living graduates.

The total number of graduates of the United States Naval Academy, including the class of 1954, is 25,059.

The administration of the Naval Academy is under the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C. Entrance requirements are fully set forth in the pamphlet Regulations Governing the Admission of Candidates Into the United States Naval Academy as Midshipmen and Sample Examination Questions, copies of which may be obtained by application to the Bureau of Naval Personnel. A description of the course of instruction is contained in the pamphlet, Course of Instruction at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., copies of which may be had by applying to the Academy.

ANNUAL LEAVE

First and third classmen were granted annual leave from August 4 to September 3.

Second Class

Midshipmen of the second class were divided into four battalions with approximately 192 midshipmen in each battalion for the summer period. They participated in training as follows:

TRAMID 54

Midshipmen of the second class participated with a detachment of Canadian Naval Cadets in 2 weeks of amphibious training at the Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Va., during the period June 6 to June 19. Participating also were elements of the Atlantic Fleet, including Fleet Marine Force and Amphibious Force units.

AIRCRAFT CARRIER CRUISE

Two battalions of midshipmen, second class, embarked in the U. S. S. Valley Forge for a 3-week cruise from June 19 to July 10. The remaining two battalions embarked in the U. S. S. Antietam for their cruise from July 12 to July 31. Both cruises visited Halifax, Nova Scotia, for a period of 4 days; the first from July 2 to July 6 and the second from July 23 to July 27. The training during this period included a comprehensive lecture program on the organization and operation of the carrier and its air group. These lectures were supplemented by demonstrations and exercises in which the midshipmen took part. Among the specific carrier air operations observed were: day and night takeoffs and landings by jet and propeller driven aircraft from the canted deck carrier, hunter-killer antisubmarine exercises, and a simulated night air attack on the carrier. In addition to the foregoing training, an appropriate schedule of social affairs and entertainment events was afforded all members of the second class during these cruises.

PHILADELPHIA AND PATUXENT RIVER TRAINING PERIOD

Each battalion spent 9 days in this phase of their summer training program. At the Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, Md., the midshipmen observed and received instruction in the following: The mission of each test activity, new aircraft test procedures, firing demonstrations and armament tests, aerial demonstrations, and airborne early-warning procedures. In addition, midshipmen made flights in both jet and propeller driven aircraft and helicopters. The period in the Philadelphia area was spent visiting the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard, the Naval Air Material Center, the Naval Air Development Center, and the Damage Control Training Center. The Glenn L. Martin aircraft factory near Baltimore was also inspected. During this phase also, special social affairs were arranged and entertainment events were scheduled.

FLIGHT INDOCTRINATION AT THE U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY

This 10-day period included flying and practical ground instruction as well as a lecture-discussion program. Flights, under dual flight instruction, in training (N3N) and patrol (UF) planes were made by the entire second class. Ground instruction in matters directly relating to flying, such as flight safety, flight equipment usage, aerial navigation, and airborne electronics, were given. The lecture-discussion program covered general aviation subjects, for example: history and mission of Naval Aviation, flight at all speeds, acceleration effects of flight, principles of operation of helicopters, patrol, utility and transport aircraft, and seaplanes.

ANNUAL LEAVE

Leave was granted midshipmen of the second class from August 3 to September 3.
